PETITIONING THE COURT

To incorporate the violation(s) contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violation(s) previously reported to the Court on 03/18/2016 and 03/24/2016.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
6	Mandatory Condition # 2: The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: On March 30, 2016, the undersigned officer received a police report in reference to Mr. Blocker alleging new criminal conduct while on supervised release. Included with the report was a Spokane Police Department Charging Request and Affidavit of Facts, requesting that Mr. David Blocker be charged with second degree assault, DV and second degree malicious mischief, DV.

The documentation indicates that on March 29, 2016, law enforcement was dispatched to investigate an alleged incident of domestic violence. Upon arrival, the identified victim was standing next to her vehicle. The victim indicated that her tires had been slashed, and law enforcement determined that the marks on the tires were consistent with this report. The officer also identified bruising on the victim, specifically on her arm, and jaw.

The report further documents that based on witness testimony, on March 27, 2016, Mr. David Blocker was present with the victim at which time he became angry, grabbing the victim and pushing her down. The report then indicates that Mr. Blocker stood over the victim, grabbed her shirt with two hands, and “slammed” her against the floor. Once the victim stood up, Mr. Blocker is alleged to have grabbed the victim by the chin, at which point his hand slid down to the victim’s throat, rendering the victim unable to breathe or speak.

It should be noted that second degree assault is a Class B Felony, as noted under Washington State Law RCW 9A.36.021.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
